Attached is the copy of on undeted tebulation Attached is the copy of on undeted tebulation Jon imports of plates, sinc, copyer, length, transformer oil, nurbths, length transformer oil, support of plates, sinc, copyer, length, transformer oil, nurbths, length transformer oil, support oil oil, support oil, plates including 21,000 tons of a including 21,000 tons of a including 21,000 tons of a plates and shipbuilding plates approximately checks with the monthly average quently white the inport of and only absorbed the the recently included the the recently included the plates approximately checks with the monthly average quently white the import of a fance and spirituiding plates approximately checks with the monthly average quently white the import of a fance and opport were condiderebly one pile than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crade oil import of a fance and copyer were condiderebly one pile than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crade oil import of a fance and copyer were condiderebly one pile than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crade oil import of a fance of copyer were condiderebly one pile than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crade oil import of a fance of copyer were condiderebly one pile than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crade oil import of a fance of copyer were condiderebly one pile than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crade oil import of a fance of copyer were condiderebly one pile than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crade oil import of a fance of copyer of a fance of copyer were condiderebly one pile than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crade oil import of a fance of copyer			E/L#2A
Attached is the copy of an undated tabulation on imports of plates, zinc, copper, lenkol, transferrer oil, naphtha- line, which should be in the definite monthly account. 25X1 Attached is the copy of an undated tabulation on imports of plates, zinc, copper, lenkol, transferrer oil, naphtha- line, which is the definite monthly account. In precious material resolution and the definite monthly account. In precious material resolution and the definite monthly account. 25X1 25X1 25X1 Attached is the copy of on undated tabulation on imports of plates, zinc, copper, lenkol, transferrer oil, naphtha- line, which is insignificantly changed in the definite monthly account. In precious materials had been imported to Rest derroy in January 1953. The planned yearly inport would amount to a total of 102,000 tons of plates including 21,000 tons of shiptulding plates including 21,000 tons of fine, and 16,000 tons of copper in 1953. This means that the January 1953 inport of plates and shiptulding plates approximately checks with the monthly average quantity while the import of sinc and copper were considerably smaller than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crude oil import from 21,000 tons. 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1B Attached is the copy of an undated tabulation Attached is the copy of an undated tabulation precious materials and copy of the control of the contr	81 4
Attached is the copy of an undated tabulation On imports of Plates, zinc, copyer, length, trensformer cil, nughths and survey to the insignificantly changed in the definite monthly account. SXI SXI SXI Attached is the copy of an undated tabulation On imports of Plates, zinc, copyer, length, trensformer cil, nughths and present answers to the copy of an undated tabulation to the copy of an undated tabulation on imports of Plates, zinc, copyer, length, trensformer cil, nughths answers to the copy of an undated tabulation to the copy of the copy of an undated tabulation to the copy of the copy of an undated tabulation to the copy of the cop	ges.
SUBJECT January 1953 Imports of Ten Resential Products NO. OF PAGES 2 25X1C NO. OF ENGLS. SUPPLEMENT RO SUP			AND THE STATE
Attached is the copy of on undeted tebulation on imports of plates, sinc, copper, henzol, transformer oil, naphthaline, which is understook and to the figures quoted in the tabulation might be insignificantly changed in the definite monthly account. SX1	COUNTRY	East Germany / USSR / Satellittes	DATE DISTR. 22 September 1953
Attached is the copy of an undeted tebulation THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1X 25X1X 25X1 THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1X 25X1 THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1X 25X1 25X1 THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1 25X1 THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1 25X1 25X1 THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1 25X1 25X1 THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1	SUBJECT	January 1953 Imports of Ten Essential	Products NO. OF PAGES 2
Attached is the copy of an undated tebulation on imports of plates, sinc, copyer, tensol, trensformer oil, naphthaline, while in insignificantly changed in the definite monthly account. This is unevaluated in the tabulation might be insignificantly changed in the definite monthly account. Description of plates and perfect to feet Germany in January 1953. The planned yearly import would smooth to a total of 102,000 tons of plates including 21,000 tons of shipbuilding plates, 10,000 tons of rine, and 10,000 tons of copyer in 1953. The planned yearly import would smooth to a total of 102,000 tons of plates including 21,000 tons of shipbuilding plates, 10,000 tons of rine, and 10,000 tons of copyer in 1953. The planned yearly import would smooth to a total of 102,000 tons of plates including 21,000 tons of shipbuilding plates, 10,000 tons of rine, and 10,000 tons of copyer in 1953. The planned yearly import would smooth to a total of 102,000 tons of plates and shipbuilding plates approximately checks with the monthly average quantity while the import of sinc and copper were considerably smaller than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crude oil import lower in the control of 10,000 tons of 10,000		25X1C	NO OF ENCLS.
Attached is the copy of an undated tebuletion Attached is the copy of a			25X1
Attached is the copy of an undated tebulation on imports of plates, zinc, copper, lenzol, transformer oil, naphthaline, without the figures quoted in the tebulation might be insignificantly changed in the definite monthly account. SX1 SX1 Do precious metals had leen imported to East Gententy in January 1953. The planned yearly import would ensure to total of 102,000 tons of plates including 21,000 tons of shipbuilding plates, 10,000 tons of copper in 1953. This neans that the January 1953 import of plates and shipbuilding plates approximately checks with the monthly average quantity while the import of zinc and copper were considerably smaller than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crude oil import from Zistersdorf. Austria. Was originally scheduled to smount to 480,000 tons of imported crude oil vould consequently mean that the monthly average to be expected was reached in January 1953.	7
Attached is the copy of an undated tebulation on imports of plates, zinc, copper, lenzol, transformer oil, naphthaline, mbbar toluol, sulphuric acid, and petfoliem to East Gertenty in January 1953. SX1 Comment: the figures quoted in the tebulation might be insignificantly changed in the definite monthly account. Jenuary 1953. The planned yearly import would enount to a total of 102,000 tons of plates including 21,000 tons of shipbuilding plates, 10,000 tons of copper in 1953. This neans that the January 1953 import of plates and shipbuilding plates approximately checks with the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crude oil import from Zisteradorf. Austria. was originally scheduled to smouth to 400,000 tons of imported could only average to be expected was reached in January 1953. The January quantity of 32,840.7 tons of imported could only average to be expected was reached in January 1953.		and the second s
Attached is the copy of an undated tebulation on imports of plates, zinc, copper, lenzol, transformer oil, naphthaline, which is insignificantly changed in the definite monthly account. SX1 Comment.		Taller State of the State of th	e de la companya de La companya de la co
Attached is the copy of an undated tebuletion on imports of plates, zinc, copper, lenzol, transformer oil, naphthaline, wibbar, toluol, sulphuric acid, and petroleum to East Gentent in January 1951. EXXIA Comment. the figures quoted in the tebulation might le insignificantly changed in the definite monthly account. Ino precious metals had been imported to East Gententy in January 1953. The planned yearly import would emount to a total of 102,000 tons of plates including 21,000 tons of shipbuilding plates, 10,000 tons of rinc, and 10,000 tons of copper in 1953. This means that the January 1953 import of plates and shipbuilding plates approximately checks with the monthly average quantity while the import of zinc and copper were considerably smaller than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crude oil import from Zistersdorf, Austria, was originally scheduled to serount 400,000 tons in 1953. See Rocent information indicated that this amount was cut to 200,000 tons. The January quantity of 32,840.7 tons of imported crude oil would consequently mean that the nonthly average to be expected was reached in January 1953.	A OF THE DRIVED S		ic id unevaluaten information
Attached is the copy of an undated tebulation on imports of plates, zinc, copper, henzol, transformer oil, naphthatine, which is comment. Estable Comment. Definition of precious metals had been imported to first Germany in January 1953. The planned yearly import would amount to a total of 102,000 tons of plates and shiptuilding plates, 10,000 tons of replates and shiptuilding plates, 10,000 tons of rinc, and 10,000 tons of copper in 1953. This neans that the January 1953 import of plates and shiptuilding plates approximately checks with the monthly average quantity while the import of zinc and copper were considerably smaller than the monthly average. A previous report indicated that the crude oil import from 21steradorf. Austria, was originally scheduled to amount to 420,000 tons in 1953. See Recent information indicated that this amount was cut to 400,000 tons. The January quantity of 32,840.7 tons of imported crude oil would consecuently mean that the monthly average to be expected was reached in January 1953.	OF ITS CONTENTS	IN ART MAKES TO AN UNATHORISTO PERSON IS THE THE
Attached is the copy of an undated tebuletion on imports of plates, zinc, copper, tenzol, transformer oil, naphthalitime, without to follow, sulphuric acid, and petroleum to East Gertany in January 1953. Comment.			20/(1//
SX1A STENSON CONTINUES IN A STATE OF THE THE STATE OF THE	5X1A 5X1 5X1A	be insignificantly changed in the definit no previous metals had been in 1953. The planned yearly import would am plates including 21,000 tons of shipbuild 10,000 tons of copper in 1953. This mean plates and shipbuilding plates approximat quantity while the import of zinc and cop the monthly average. A previous report in the zistersdorf. Austria, was originally in 1953. See Received amount was cut to 400,000 tons. The Janua ported crude oil would consequently mean	mported to East Germany in January ount to a total of 102,000 tons of ing plates, 10,000 tons of rine, and s that the January 1953 import of ely checks with the monthly average per were considerably smaller than indicated that the crude oil import scheduled to amount to 480,000 tons int information indicated that this ary quantity of 32,840,7 tons of im-
5X1A STENCY (Construction of the following states)
5X1A STENSON CONTRACTOR IN THE STATE OF THE		• SX1A STENCE (ANT ANT A COLOR OF THE TOTAL AND ANT A
	5X1A	ome r√or sw et a m, , thost i	a t e forma a park

Approved For Release 2002/07/15 : CIA-RDP80-00810A002300030007-6

SECRET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY	25X1A
-2 -
Annex to	25X1A

Copy.

January 1953 Imports.

Item		Exporting Country	Quenti	ty	Price per Tan in Tulles
1. Plates		USSR	8,450,854	tons	402-2878
	ates for aphuilding	Switzerland	1,568.327		920,00
2. Zi	inc	Poland	274,000	ff .	3 ,504 , 50
3. Ca	opper	USSR	144.490	17	2,166.00
40 Pe	enzol	Poland	13,468,310	If	480,00
5. Ti	ren sførmer il		22,000	41
б _о Ne	ephthaline	Czechoslovakia	895.300	н	494.00
7. 3	ubber		749,000	11	4,600.00
8. To	cluo1	USSR	811.000	. 11	407.00
9. Si	ulphuric acid		70,220	11
IO. Pe	etroleum	Austria	32,840.785	19	8C_00

OFFICIALS ONLY

25X1A